FIND A PARK BY STATE

Once you are on the webpage from the previous slide...

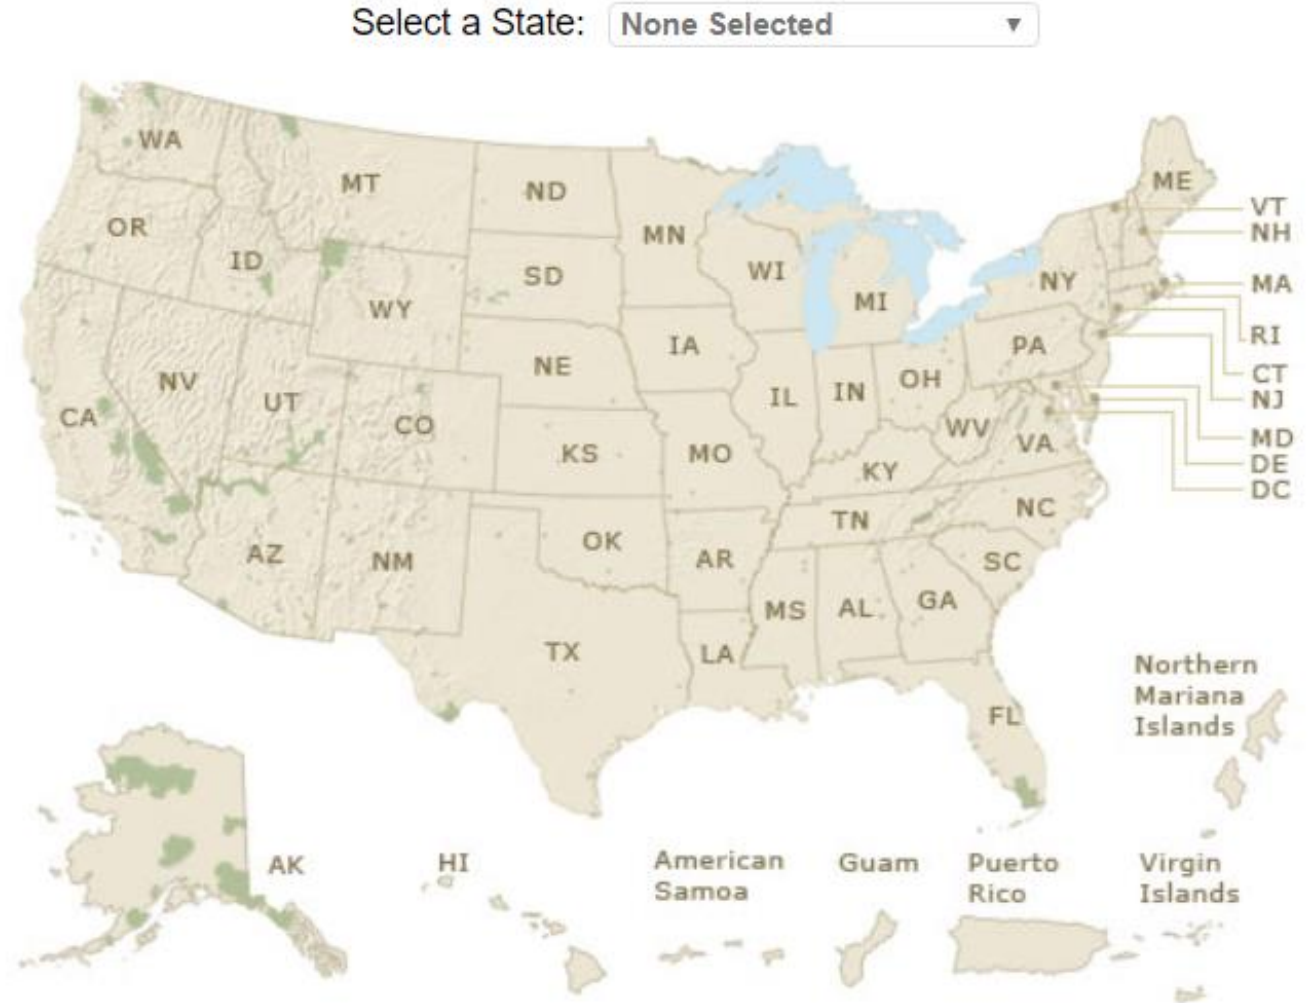

Pick a state you would like to visit. Dream, somewhere you have not been.

You will then be virtual transported to the NPS page for that state.

Scroll through the list of NPS units (sites/parks) in that state. Read over the descriptions.

Which one inspires you? Select it and visit the park page.

More than one? It's ok we will do this again. Pick on for today

NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE

Little Rock Central High School

Little Rock, AR

Little Rock Central High School, the only operating high school in the nation to be designated a National Historic Site, is a place important beyond its past. Come and learn how the sacrifice and struggle endured by nine African-Americans teenagers over a half century ago have provided opportunities and opened doors to those seeking equality – and education - around the world.
